Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Please forgive my delay in responding to your letter expressing support for my position on government surveillance and the Bill of Rights. The volume of mail on this subject has been such that it has not been possible for me to provide prompt replies to my correspondence.

I want you to know that I certainly appreciated hearing from you. I feel very strongly about this subject and felt that I had to make my position publicly known.

Again, thank you for writing.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Hale Boggs
